A Brief Introduction to CHSI

CHSI (China Higher Education Student Information Network), officially known as “Xuexinwang学信网,” is a national-level platform for managing higher education student information in China. It serves as the core data center for services such as college admissions, student registration, academic records, graduate employment, and degree verification.

Website: <https://www.chsi.com.cn/>

A Brief Introduction to CHSI(Cont'd)

Some Key Functions:

- 1. Academic Record and Degree Verification: CHSI provides verification services for academic registration and degree information for all higher education students in China, including those in regular undergraduate and postgraduate programs, adult education, and self-study programs. After completing real-name registration and identity binding, students can access their academic and degree records (e.g., enrollment status, graduation institution, major, etc.) for free, for life.
- 2. Online Verification and Certification: CHSI enables the generation of electronic verification reports, such as the Online Verification Report of Student Record and the Electronic Registration Record Form of Higher Education Qualification Certificate. These reports support online authenticity verification and are commonly used for job applications, further education, and professional title evaluations.

CHSI is the only platform officially designated by the Ministry of Education for academic qualification verification.

How to get your verification report from CHSI

International students who graduate from universities in China have their academic degree information entered into the Ministry of Education's national higher education database by their respective institutions. This information can be directly accessed and verified through the CHSI website.

If your CHSI account was previously registered with the assistance of the International Office, please contact Joyce(jguo@phbs.pku.edu.cn) to obtain your login credentials before proceeding. Please note that if you accidentally create a new CHSI account in the future, it will overwrite your existing account, potentially causing complications due to the system's complex structure. If this happens, please reach out to Joyce to retrieve your original registration details.

Additionally, if the name or passport number you enter does not match the records in our system, you will not be able to complete the verification process.
