1. Course Description

1.1 Context

Course overview:

The capital market for entrepreneurs is fundamentally different from the capital market for public firms. The objective of this course is to provide an understanding of entrepreneurs' financing decisions from the perspectives of both the entrepreneurs and the investors - venture capital and private equity. This course will address how to evaluate entrepreneurial business opportunities, structure financial decisions, and realize returns through IPO and M&A.

Prerequisites:

The course presumes that students have taken basic courses in accounting, economics, finance and econometrics before taking this course. Students are recommended to have completed the following courses: "Corporate Finance".

1.2 Textbooks and Reading Materials

Lecture notes, assignments, cases and other useful information will be posted on the course web page.

Reference text: Entrepreneurial Finance by J. Chris Leach, and Ronald W. Melicher. 5th Edition, 2015, South-Western, Cengage Learning.

Team Project:

Students will be asked to form teams of 4-5 individuals prior to the start of the second session of the class to prepare a class presentation on a pre-specified topic. Presentations will start at week 6 and last until the end of the module. Your team project includes a final report which should be turned in electronically on or before the last day of week 9. Each team should choose a target firm for the following topic:

Topic: Venture Capital Investment

The objective of this project is to understand VC investment process by analyzing an existing small to medium sized firm. You group will prepare a paper on potential VC investment and present your valuation results and investment plan to the class. An outline of the topics your paper should cover will be provided.

2.4 Academic Honesty and Plagiarism

It is important for a student's effort and credit to be recognized through class assessment. Credits earned for a student work due to efforts done by others are clearly unfair. Deliberate dishonesty is considered academic misconducts, which include plagiarism; cheating on assignments or examinations; engaging in unauthorized collaboration on academic work; taking, acquiring, or using test materials without faculty permission; submitting false or incomplete records of academic achievement; acting alone or in cooperation with another to falsify records or to obtain dishonestly grades, honors, awards, or professional endorsement; or altering, forging, or misusing a University academic record; or fabricating or falsifying of data, research procedures, or data analysis.

All assessments are subject to academic misconduct check. Misconduct check may include reproducing the assessment, providing a copy to another member of faculty, and/or communicate a copy of this assignment to the PHBS Discipline Committee. A suspected plagiarized document/assignment submitted to a plagiarism checking service may be kept in its database for future reference purpose.

Where violation is suspected, penalties will be implemented. The penalties for academic misconduct may include: deduction of honour points, a mark of zero on the assessment, a fail grade for the whole course, and reference of the matter to the Peking University Registrar.

For more information of plagiarism, please refer to PHBS Student Handbook.
